Dr. C. Arthur Sherman

Class of 1959:

You would be confused if you had never studied higher mathematics and opened a geometry textbook at random with the hope of learning Euclidian theory. However, if you began at the beginning of the book and learned the axioms, you would not be perplexed at all.

So, too, it is with life. If you will but learn and practice the axioms of life, you will be happy and at the same time make a worthwhile contribution to civilization. If you do not heed the axioms of life, only frustration and bewilderment can result.

One of the axioms of life is that you must accept the world as it is and not as you think it should be. This is one way of saying you must accept reality. It behooves you to make the reality of your years a bit better than the reality of past generations.

Good luck and best wishes!

C. A. Sherman

Francis W. Deasy

Education is not a commodity that can be bought but is the process by which we learn basic fundamentals that may be used at a later date to gain the needs of life. We should profit by past years experience and make full use of the present in order to build the desired future.

F. W. Deasy

What say Slicer,

"George you are a real good kid who should go far. "Cut it out George". O.K. Slicer here it comes. Now said this to Norma & Bubbles too — "Keep up the shake & you might make short casino (maybe you already did, huh?). You are really a fine kid who should go far.

We, the seniors of '59, are about to leave the halls of B. H. S. that have been so familiar to us in past years. We leave behind us the exciting football and basketball games, the dances, the class parties, many friends, and the faculty who has worked so closely with us. We have cheered our last team on to victory and sung the "Lost Chord" for the last time. Our wonderful memories remain with us. We hope the class of '60 will have a senior year that is as enjoyable as ours has been. We like to think the class of '59 has shone and will keep on shining.

Last Will and Testament

I, Al Lawther, will the Gissy, Ladner, Onamastico, MacBurney, Krause, Elphinstone, Lawther way with women to Ronny Russetto.

We, Dick Toney, Pat Krause, Mike Branchen, Tom von Philp, and Jack Lachman, leave to any new student all the friendliness we have received at B.H.S.

I, Jackie Miller, leave my collection of 37 sweaters to Lynne Crosby, so that she too may gain the title of "Sweater Girl".

I, Tom von Philp, leave my "safe" driving habits to Tom Stoker.

We, Suzy Diehl and Linda Howells, will our locker companion, Cecil Augustus, to Carol Yagello and Virginia Iuey.

I, Donna Hartung, leave my blush to any pale junior.

I, Nancy Hess, will the nickname "Mouse" to any junior girl who is never quiet.

I, Diane Peterson, will my position as student bandleader to anyone who can put up with Mr. R's jokes.

I, Judy Koerner, leave my nickname, "Gay", to any blonde junior who can be mistaken for it.

I, Jim Goodwin, will my stinky, football helmet to Elwood Lamp.

We, Frannie De Pietro and Judy Miller, leave our "sun-bleached" hair to any junior girls who are coward enough to leave home to change the color of their hair.

I, Bob Rimmel, leave my size 12½ white bucks to Ray Nowicki.

I, Ruthie Mathews, will my dimples to Sally Lutz, so that she too may be teased every time she laughs.

We, Enuj, Rab Ztenl, Rab Tosuorp, Holy Crow, the Bombshell, and Mar Reginlmeh, leave our "club" to Jo Costic and Barb Phlun.

I, Jack Garret, leave the Castrodale, DeGenaro, Schademan, Garret "do-nothing" attitude to Bob Nilles.

We, John Wingertzahn, Dave Johns, and Bob Gianni, will our habit of being late for football practice to any juniors who like to run laps.

We, the class of '59, will all the fun we had in our senior year to the class of '60, but no one, juniors, can outshine class of "59".

Football

On September 19th the Brentwood football team beat Carrick for the first time in nine years. Coached by George Radosevich, Bertil Von Philp, and Richard Barclay, the Spartans came out on top by the score of 13-7.

Other highlights of the season were the beating of McDonald and the tying of Homestead. The McDonald game was the most exciting game as we scored with only minutes to go in the fourth quarter. It was a see-saw battle all the way.

Senior lettermen this year were linemen Gene Nicholson, John Wingertzahn, Dick Toney, Rich Brown, Dave Johns, Bob Gianni, Jim Goodwin, Lou Denardo and Nick Monsour. Senior backs to get letters were Bill Beile and Ed Melvin.

Enjoying only an average year, the Spartan basketball team completed the season with 10 wins and 13 losses. In section 13 the record read six and six. Many of the games were close and the scores would have been reversed by an extra last minute Brentwood basket.

Leading a talented and well-coached team were seniors Chuck Narvin, a 4 year letterman, Gene Nicholson, Ed Miller, Al Lawther, Carl Leslie, Mike Branchen, Tom Von Philp and head manager, Jim Creighton, all of whom will be missed next year.

One of the high-lights of the season was the breaking of the school record of 80 points when against Bethel, the final tally showed Brentwood 88 Bethel 71. Chuck Narvin set an all-time high for Brentwood by scoring 448 or a 20 point game average. Chuck also set the single game high record by scoring 38 points in the West Allegheny game. Bob Henrich was second in the scoring with 279 to his credit. He returns next year, under the supervision of head coach William P. Douglass and assistant James Trovato, along with lettermen Bob Brown, and George Steinbaugh.

Track

This year's Spartan cindermen are coached by Donald Anderson and his assistants George Radosevich and Leo Prostko. Brentwood has ten returning lettermen. Back are sprinters Bill Beile, Bob Rimmel, and undercalssmen Jim Takach and George Steinbaugh. Returning field event men are John Wingertzahn, Ed Melvin, Ed Miller, Ron Miller, Gene Nicholson, and junior Ed Luck.

Mr. Anderson stated, "The past two seasons have shown definite improvement. This year we have great potential and should be strong with a possibility of several boys going to the state finals."

Our greatest strength this year is in the discus with John Wingertzahn, Gene Nicholson, and Ed Melvin. We should also be strong in the mile and half-mile relays with Bill Beile, Bob Rimmel, Jim Takach, George Steinbaugh, Ed Miller, Mike Branchen, and John Warner.

The Junior Varsity team, coached by James Trovato had a record of 10-11. The 1st. string was never stable because some players were used to strengthen the varsity lineup. Players who moved to and from the varsity and who will be looking for positions on next year's varsity are Bob Brown, Bob Mulholland, George Steinbaugh, Don Kenavey, Bob Fisher, Don Henciak, and Roy Zatterio. The big success of the year was beating Central Catholic.

Coached by Robert Schwille, the Junior High team had a rough season with a record of 3 wins and 8 losses. Although the record wasn't impressive, the boys learned the fundamentals and how to play basketball.

Next year's J. V. team can expect Junior High lettermen David Lewis, Bob Douglass, Bob Fallgren, Bob Bursey, Tom Quigley, George Bender, and Bob Park.

Next year the Jr. High will depend on lettermen Jack Rozzo and Carl Tannebaum to spark the team.

greatest personality and sweetest smile that I like. I am glad you can take all the cuts people say but remember I'll forgive you for always cutting me. Remember at two years old at the show sure can juice them too. But I'll forgive and always have a the panic at school to forgive you for teasing me. Remember
I could kill you for always to forgive you. Remember

George,

Remember all the cuts and all the fights and all the remarks? This is But most of all remember the good times. This year has been one of the best by far. I hope our homeroom next year can be as good as this one. I hope we can have as much fun and good times as we've had this year. I'll never forget all the dances, and the crazy things we missed around at them. One thing I know I'll never forget is all the weird bulletin board things we had up for that week. I'll probably be the last to forget the way Mr. Stark typed up this summer as we did last year. I wrote a whole page, and I was the disagreements we had over what to satisfied, but you must consider he was a first. I'll probably be the last too, cause no body but nobody can talk as much as I do. you should know, I've talked enough to you.

Love Ever,

Donaleen

George,
one of the biggest and baddest ones of I ever had the misfortune of meeting into. But I guess it became it or your early childhood. (were you ever smaller?)
Mr Keading George, you're one in a million. (the world would be able to turn if there was more than see ya around the pastures!
one of you.)
